Pre-Program talk was given by Dr. P. Ravi Sankar on the flow chart of the sessions going to be held and motivated faculty members to participate in the sessions. Day wise report of FIP is given below.

Day 1 – 09.07.2018 (Monday)

SESSION: I

Speaker: Dr. P. Srinivasa Babu, Professor and Principal

Topic: Role of Teacher in Student's Life.

Speaker of the session initiated it with focus on teacher's input in academics and non-academics in undeniable. They were the sculptures who shape the young minds of tomorrow for better Nation. He also focused on the characteristic attributes of a teacher in bringing the best in students. Speaker of the session stressed on the significance of the efficacy of faculty in student's life. He suggested to play the role of guru. Session came to an end with the vote of thanks.

SESSION: II

Speaker: Mrs. P. Sowjanya, Associate Professor

Topic: Framing of COs and CO-PO Attainment.

Session started with OBE philosophy in line with the assessment for the better outcomes. The speaker of the session showed light on how to carry out the internal and external assessment for the benefit of students and the faculty improvement. She emphasized that when creating Course Outcomes remember that the outcomes should clearly state what students will do or produce to determine and/or demonstrate their learning. It was discussed in the session about the efficacies of blooms taxonomy and she stressed young faculty members to make student think and write on their but not by mere spelling out in the answer sheet. She also stressed on the importance of assessment as it is the real feedback for the enhancement of the institution. She added that the Program Outcomes (POs) are the qualities that must be imbibed in the graduates by the time of completion of their program. At the end of each program, the PO assessment is done from the CO attainment of all curriculum components.

Day 2 – 10.07.2018 (Tuesday)

SESSION: I

Speaker: Mr. Satheesh S. Gottipati, Dean of Academics, Pharmacy Practice.

Topic: An Overview of Pharmacy Education in India.

Speaker of the session deliberated that Pharmacy education in India traditionally has been industry and product oriented. In contrast to the situation in developed nations, graduate pharmacists prefer placements in the pharmaceutical industry. To practice as a pharmacist in India, one needs at least a diploma in pharmacy, which is awarded after only 2 years and 3 months of pharmacy studies. These diploma-trained pharmacists are the mainstay of pharmacy practice. In India, there has been a surge in the number of institutions offering pharmacy degrees at various levels and a practice-based doctor of pharmacy (PharmD) degree program was started in some private institutions in 2008. He also stressed that we should adhere to the changing face of the profession is discussed, including the establishment of the PharmD program. The session was concluded with the end note that Pharmacy professionals should always be ready with the notion that always expect the unexpected.

SESSION: II

Speaker: Mr. P.N. Chakravarthy, Associate Professor, Dept. of S&H.

Topic: Mechanism of Internal Assessment.

Mr. P. N. Chakravarthy, session's speaker initiated that Vignan Pharmacy College follows transparent evaluation system for the benefit of the students and it also serves as a tool for the faculty members for improvising the Teaching and Learning process. He also added that we follow the guidelines as per JNTUK. He focused on mid examinations, assignments, seminar, group discussions and projects are the essentials tools for the assessment. Session came to an end with the brain storming session.

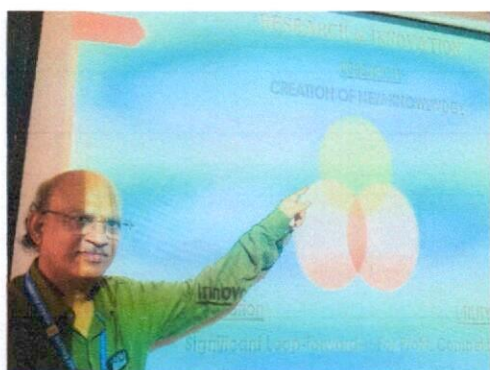

Day 3 – 11.07.2018 (Wednesday)

SESSION: I

Speaker: Dr. P. Ravi Sankar, Professor and Head, Dept. of Pharmaceutical Analysis.

Topic: Research in Higher Education.

Speaker of the session Dr. P. Ravi Sankar discussed on the importance of quality in research as it makes people understand how we experience the whole world. He stressed on the importance of approach towards research. He insisted that the main motto of researcher should be out of plagiarism which will equip us for better outreach which turns researchers into two philosophical perspectives, the interpretive and critical research paradigms, which underpin both the qualitative research methodologies. Especially research at Higher Educational Institution is insisted to be focused on the quality of work and not the quantity which leads the better citizens of India through integrity, IPR and patents. Session came to an end with Question-and-Answer session.

Speaker: Dr. Ch. V. Prasada Rao, Associate Professor, Dept. of Pharmacy Practice.

Topic: Professional Ethics and Etiquettes.

Dr. Ch. V. Prasada Rao speaker of the session initiated with the focus on being humane towards our workplace people devoid of designations. He focused on the five qualities of being professional,

- Openness: to experience: curious and innovative vs. cautious and consistent
- Conscientiousness: goal-driven and detail-oriented vs. casual and careless
- Extraversion: outgoing and enthusiastic vs. solitary and guarded
- Agreeableness: cooperative and flexible vs. defiant and stubborn
- Neuroticism: anxious and volatile vs. confident and stable.

He stressed on the effectiveness of the qualities in active oriented session. Session came to an end with the closing remarks by Mr. G. Yalamandeswara Rao, Assistant Professor, Dept. of S&H.
